Intervacc expands the distribution agreement with Animalcare Group plc

The animal health company Intervacc has through the wholly owned subsidiary Nordvacc Läkemedel AB (Nordvacc) expanded the distribution agreement with Ecuphar NV, a wholly owned subsidiary of Animalcare Group plc, a European company Headquartered in the UK. The agreement gives Nordvacc exclusive rights to sell a growing and innovative portfolio of veterinary pharmaceutical products from Animalcare Group plc on the Swedish market.

"It is very gratifying that we now can increase the cooperation, after close to two years of business with Animalcare. We look forward to introducing several interesting products to the Swedish market. This is an important step in the strategy to broaden our animal health product portfolio in collaboration with strong partners" – says Andreas Andersson, CEO Intervacc AB

Since its inception in 1988, Animalcare Group plc has built up a reputable brand based on innovative, high quality products in the veterinary pharmaceutical market. In July 2017, the merger between Animalcare and Ecuphar NV was carried out and together they operate in 32 countries in Europe and a further 16 countries worldwide. The company is listed on the London Stock Exchange's AIM list.

The agreement covers the sale of veterinary pharmaceutical products for Companion Animals, Production Animals and Equine. The first two products in the agreement will be introduced on the Swedish animal health market already during the current year.
