Intervacc presents to the capital market on three occasions in March

Intervacc AB (publ) is a Swedish biotechnology company developing breakthrough vaccines based on recombinant protein fusions. In March, the company will present at the DNB/Carnegie Healthcare Seminar, Stora Aktiedagarna and Stockholm Corporate Finance Life Science kapitalmarknadsdagar.

– At this time when more than 30,000 horses have been vaccinated with Strangvac®, several field studies have been completed and a long series of scientific articles have been published, it is time and of great importance to summarize and report on the company's current situation for the shareholders, says newly appointed CEO Carl-Johan Dalsgaard. In addition, there is a lot more going on, both in the short and long term, which I look forward to communicate.

Carl-Johan Dalsgaard will be presenting at:

» Carnegie Healthcare Seminar, 9 March at 16:00.
» Stora Aktiedagarna 2026, 11 March at 16:25.
» Stockholm Corporate Finance Life Science kapitalmarknadsdagar, 17 March at 9:30.
