Intervacc and Dechra extend distribution agreement for Intervacc's equine strangles vaccine Strangvac by two years

Intervacc AB (publ) announces today that the five-year distribution agreement signed in April 2021 with its partner Dechra Pharmaceuticals PLC has been extended by two years. The extension will take effect in April 2026. The agreement covers Strangvac®, Intervacc's vaccine against equine strangles a highly contagious infectious disease that affects horses.

Dechra Pharmaceuticals launched Strangvac® in the United Kingdom during the autumn of 2022 and has since introduced the vaccine in an additional 12 countries, most recently in Spain, Portugal, and Slovenia in August this year. Intervacc is responsible for the distribution of Strangvac® in Scandinavia.
